Connecticut State Police Investigate Fatal Motor Vehicle Accident on I-95 in Old Saybrook

On Wednesday, December 22, 2004 at 8:48 am, State Troopers from the Troop F, Westbrook, barracks responded to a two-car motor vehicle accident northbound on I-95, north of exit 69 on the Baldwin Bridge in Old Saybrook. Two persons were pronounced deceased by emergency medical personnel at the accident scene, while one other person was flown by Lifestar medical helicopter to Hartford Hospital with extensive injuries, and two additional involved persons were transported by local EMS to an area medical facility for treatment of moderate non-life threatening injuries. The identities of the deceased are not being released as of yet, pending notification of next of kin.

A State Police Reconstruction team also responded to initiate an extensive investigation into this motor vehicle accident where causation of this accident will be determined.

The State Police is asking for any witnesses to this accident, or persons with information, to please contact Troop F at 860-399-2100.
